

Dance for a cause raises 5 lakhs for P4P

21st August 2011 Bangalore, Alisha Kalyanpur, a student of Grade 9, Inventure Academy, Ms Kanya Ramchandran Tayalia and Shruti Kamisetty, a class XI student of Aditi Mallya School recently performed a Bharatanatyam dance show to raise funds for the People 4 People foundation.

Entitled Dance for a Cause, the program was held at the Jagriti Theater in Whitefield on August 21.

The grand finale was titled Sadbhavana, a fusion dance performed to musical compositions by Mozart, Benjamin Britten, AR Rahman, Bryan Adams and Michael Jackson. The last piece of this, danced to the melody of "Heal the World" brought the entire audience to its feet and tears to many eyes.

The Dance for a cause show was a sell-out and raised over Rs 5 lakh. Thanks to the dancers, the installation of 8 more playgrounds is now possible for the government school kids of Bangalore.
